GLOBAL COMPACT NETWORK THAILAND

The Ten Principles of the United Nations Global Compact and 17 SDGs

The Ten Principles of the UN Global Compact provide a common ethical and practical framework for corporate sustainability. Derived from UN Declarations and Conventions, these universal principles represent the fundamental values businesses should embed in their daily strategies and operations. Together, the 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and the Ten Principles equip businesses with both the value and vision to help companies make a meaningful contribution to people and the planet.

GCNT PROGRAMS

Business and Human Rights Academy (BHR Academy): Driving Business through Respect for Human Rights

GCNT promotes human rights and labor rights by collaborating with stakeholders to enhance understanding and build business capacity to respect human rights, foster good practices, apply human rights due diligence comprehensively, and drive the development of laws and policies that enable responsible business conduct.

Anti-Corruption: Driving Business Integrity

GCNT unites all sectors to strengthen anti-corruption in business through process improvement, policy advocacy, and promoting supply chain transparency, aiming for sustainable positive change.

Creating business through circular design: CIRCO

CIRCO Methodology integrates thinking approaches including Design Thinking, Life Cycle Analysis, The Value Hill, and Change Management to empower businesses to gain a holistic perspective and achieve circular economy. This method has facilitated over 100 companies to take the first step in creating circular businesses while providing a tool and framework for businesses to innovate and for policymakers to fuel the circular transition.

Sustainable-Intelligence based SPHERE (SI SPHERE)

SI SPHERE is a platform to empower one million employees and youths across Thailand with future-ready skills. Through Learning Centers and sustainability programs, SI SPHERE is dedicated to driving a sustainable intelligence-based society.
